baptist church
ebenezer
rockofhelp.org.uk

We collect the information to help us run the Holiday Club safely and ensure we can contact you in the case of an emergency. Data Protection legislation allows us to process this information as we regard it as being in the church's legitimate interest. The information you supply will be held on a data base which only our Children and Youth workers have access to.

We'd love to let you know about future children and youth events happening connected with Ebenezer Baptist Church. If you would like to be informed about these events please tick the relevant box. If you do we will retain your details after Holiday Club for the sole purpose of notifying you of such events. We will NOT pass on this information to anyone else. You have the right to ask to be removed from this circulation list at any time. If you don't tick the box then the information will be irrevocably deleted after Holiday Club.

Due to the nature of children's and youth work we sometimes wish to take photographs of the various activities taking place. If you have indicated consent for us to use photos of you or your children in our advertising then these photos may be displayed on the church notice boards, on 'in house' publicity or on the church website/social media.

Under Data Protection legislation the Charity Trustees of Ebenezer Baptist Church as well as staff and volunteers are the Data Controller entity and can be contacted by email at; gdpradministrator@rockofhelp.org.uk

If you are concerned about the way your information is being handled please contact us using the above details. If you are still unhappy, you have the right to complain to the Information Commissioners Office.